Position of Responsibility

Web Developer

As a dedicated WordPress Web Developer at Unicrop Biochem, I play a pivotal role in designing, developing, and maintaining the company's online presence to effectively showcase its agricultural products and services. Leveraging my expertise in WordPress and front-end development, I contribute to creating an engaging and informative user experience for visitors.

College Student

I recently completed my Master of Science in Information Technology and gained valuable practical experience as a web developer intern. During my internship, I worked on various projects and gained hands-on experience with front-end and back-end web development technologies, including HTML, CSS, JavaScript. I also collaborated with a team of developers to design and develop responsive websites that met clients' requirements. I am now eager to apply my knowledge and skills in a professional setting and contribute to a dynamic team.
